ROCKBRIDGE ALUM SPRINGS, VA.

Open May 15th, 1870.

THIS FAVORITE AND CELEBRATED Watering Place is now in complete order for the reception of guests. Important improvements have been added to the buildings since the establishment passed into the hands of the present proprietor, and it is his purpose to keep it in a style not surpassed anywhere in Virginia. The waters of these special springs either cure or greatly relieve most cases of Scrofula, Incipient Consumption, Chronic Bronchitis, Chronic Laryngitis, Chronic Pneumonia, Chronic Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, painters. They are also a great value in those affections which are peculiar to the female constitution, and as an appetizer, a tonic and general restorative, they are, perhaps, unrivalled amongst mineral waters. The proprietor will have provided for the lawns and ballroom a first-class band of music, and in general all the sources of amusement and recreation usually found at our best summer resorts will be at the command of the guests at "ROCKBRIDGE ALUM." The place is within eleven to thirteen hours of Richmond, Washington, Baltimore, &c., by rail, all in daylight. Passengers leave the cars of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad at Goshen Depot, and new and elegant stage coaches, passing rapidly over a smooth and level road of only eight miles, set down the visitors at the Springs to tea.

MURDER WITHOUT SENSATION.

The horrid, brutal double murder in Cumberland county, last week, did not shock the nervous system of our Executive as did the murder of Stephens a few days previous. The Governor did not send telegrams to Pool and Abbott as he did on the death of Stephens, and why?

The Governor says Stephens was murdered by Ku Klux—what evidence had he then, or has he yet, of it? Besides, is it more legal; more tolerable; more humane, to shoot down a whole family of honorable, intelligent, respectable and quiet Conservatives, than it is to murder a single individual who, to say the least of it, had made himself obnoxious not only to his political opponents, but to many of his political partisans.

We do not palliate the crime in either case, but it seems to make a considerable difference with the Governor, when an ox has been gored, as to who the ox and who the bull belonged to.

When France was governed by a secret, oath bound political club, as this State has been by the secret oath bound Leagues for the last four years, the extent and intensity of the grief and mourning, for the victims of the times depended a great deal upon who was assassinated. If the Jacobins assassinated a Vandean, or one of the mountain party, it was no great cause of grief to the Jacobins; and when the Vandeans butchered a Jacobin, or destroyed a whole city of men, women and children, there were no sackcloth and ashes put on by the Vandean party.

Colgrove, a Penitentiary bird, belonged to the League, and was League or Jacobin Sheriff of Jones county. He was assassinated, and the Governor, who was President of the Leagues, called out his militia and commissioned his spies, and sent them to that county. These troops were, to a great extent, men of abandoned character. Many of them went off drunk, remained drunk and returned drunk. They fought, and cut and stabbed among themselves, and one of them was actually murdered in the streets of Goldsborough, on their return.—All this was done at an expense of some two thousand dollars to the people of Jones.

Outlaw, President of the Leagues in Alamance, shot at the Ku Klux, and boasted of having done so, and declared he would do it again. One morning he was found hung by the Ku Klux, or somebody else.—The Governor, who Jordan Potts declared to be still the President of the Leagues, sent three several detachments of troops to Alamance.

In Granville, Dr. Hicks could stand in his door and see the fires of the incendiary consume more than fifty thousand dollars worth of his neighbors' property, but no troops were sent to Granville.

In Orange three barns with stables attached, were fired at the same hour, on the same night; but no troops were sent to Orange to ferret out these incendiaries.—But the Ku Klux hung three members of the League, thus quenching the smoldering embers of the burnt buildings with the blood of those who kindled the fires.

In Harnett, the glare of the incendiary's torch makes its nightly illumination, until it has become necessary for the farmers of that county to stand guard over their premises at night, after working all day. So intolerable has the state of affairs become there, that the people are talking of coming in a body to the Governor and demanding of him protection against his hellish League depredations.

No troops are sent to Harnett, because no Leaguers are burnt out.

A week ago to-day, in Cumberland county, Neill McLeod and his brother, Daniel, were shot down and instantly killed in their own house, in open day, while the wife and daughter of Neill, and also his son who attempted to defend the premises, were shot and badly injured, by disguised desperadoes, but no troops are sent to Cumberland, and no flaming telegrams dispatched to Pool and Abbott at Washington.

The McLeods do not belong to the League.

We sincerely hope that no unlawful hanging will follow the burnings in Harnett, nor this outrage in Cumberland; but that, when the perpetrators are discovered, they will be punished by the slower, but surer, process of the law.

We are satisfied that Littlefield, Abbott, Heaton, and the whole brigade of carpet baggers in the State, would be pleased and gratified at the hanging of black members of the Leagues, daily, if it could be made the means of keeping their party together and continuing themselves, with Brewer, Ashley, Menninger and the smaller fry of plunderers in their present lucrative positions.

Brick Pomeroy says: There is a movement on foot among consumers of eggs to buy them only by the pound instead of the dozen. The hens, within the past ten years—about the time the Radical party came into power—have got to cheating, by laying little bits of eggs.

WHO KILLED STEPHENS?

We have denounced the death of Stephens as a diabolical act. It is equally so, whether he killed himself, or was killed by white Ku Klux, or by negro Ku Klux. Conservatives and Radicals in Caswell have been on the alert to find out who killed Stephens, but no one yet seems to know. It was charged, at first, that he was killed by an armed band of disguised men. The Governor telegraphed this to Congress without a particle of evidence. No one pretends that he saw or heard of an armed, disguised man. If any man was disguised or armed, the colored men who thronged the Court House all day and all night, ought to have seen them and arrested them. They, if any one does, know who killed Stephens. The evidence is becoming more palpable that the negroes killed him. It is known that most of the crimes committed in this State, have been done by disguised negroes and white Radical Ku Klux or League men.—Having succeeded in raising a hue and cry against Ku Klux, alleged to be Democrats, the Radical negroes and vagabond whites have put on the supposed toggery, signs, secrecy, &c., of the so-called Ku Klux, and have been committing the most diabolical crimes and charging them upon the Democrats and Conservatives. Who killed the Foscue family and Col. Neathercutt in Jones? Who killed Colgrove? There is far more reason to believe that all these crimes were committed by Radical negroes and white scalawag vagabonds, than by men of any claims to respectability. Who killed the McLeods, of Cumberland, and many others that might be named, but this very class of men, who are reckless of human life, and who kill and burn, for plunder and to carry out their personal or political hate.

The following note is from a moderate man, a man whom the Governor himself would not gainsay. He is a Caswell man, has looked closely into the facts, and it is evident that he believes the negroes of Yanceyville know better who killed Stephens than any one else:

CASWELL COUNTY, May 28, 1870.

MR. EDITOR: The death of John W. Stephens, it is still a mystery to the good people of our county. We have been badly abused by some of the press of this State—have been willified and treated outrageously; and the people feel deeply incensed at said papers. John W. Stephens is found dead with a rope around his neck, his throat cut and two stabs in his breast, in a room in the Court House that has only been used as a wood room, the door leading into said room was thumb bolted and locked inside, and all of the windows down.—A large crowd of negroes during the entire day were in close proximity to said windows, so that any persons who might wish to escape would certainly be seen by this crowd. Stephens was seen, after the most of the white element had left the village, canvassing with negroes in the passage leading to this room. Soon the alarm was given that Stephens was missing, and the last seen of him was when he went into the Court House; search was made for him that evening, but he was not found. A guard was placed around the Court House and remained there all night to catch these men in disguise, the Ku Klux, but no one was seen or heard, all was silent; next morning another search was made by a negro climbing up and looking in the window of said room, and the said negro there finds the corpse. Well, now, who killed Stephens? was he in the way or was he the worriest sheep in the flock, and must he be slaughtered for political purposes, I cannot say. But where are the men in disguise? Why don't those negroes that told him there was danger ahead that morning, come forward and tell the authorities of said danger.—No, pack it on these men in disguise. They are the very men that did the killing. Men, you know, Mr. Editor, have quit killing themselves for "guilty conscience sake," and the poor men in disguise have all to bear.

Yours,

HAMP.

A colored man named William Grant, says the Wilmington Journal, had his foot badly crushed by being run over by a train on Sunday. He states that he was sitting under Boney Bridge, near the track, reading, but fell asleep, when the train passed along, injuring both feet, the left one being so badly crushed that it will probably be necessary to amputate it. He was taken to the City Hospital to Dr. Winants, for treatment.

HERTFORD COUNTY CONVENTION.

The citizens of Hertford County met at the Court House, in Winston, N. C. on Monday the 2nd inst. by previous notice to all parties irrespective of color, for the purpose of nominating candidates to fill the County offices in August next.

On motion of Mr. John A. Vann, Mr. Daniel Valentine was called to the Chair, and J. W. Perry requested to act as Secretary.

Mr. Valentine briefly explained the object of the meeting, and appointed a committee of seven to retire and make such nominations as would be acceptable to the citizens of the county.

Motions and amendments were made to increase the committee to seventeen.

The Chairman added five white Conservatives and five leading colored Republicans to the committee.

After retiring, the Republicans begged leave to be excused.

The committee through Mr. Richard Cooper, after a short deliberation, reported the following nominations which were unanimously adopted:

For the House of Representatives, Thomas R. Jernigan.

For Commissioners, Geo. W. Brett, J. B. Hare, Jno. M. Harrell, Sanly Taylor, Esq., and Ed. D. Scull.

For Treasurer, John A. Vann.

For Register, A. G. Vann.

For Coroner, G. W. Wynne.

Endorsing the resolutions of a previous meeting and the platform proposed by the Conservative party of the General Assembly of N. C.

Mr. Jernigan being called for, came forward and in a most beautiful speech, accepted the nomination, standing squarely and emphatically upon the Conservative platform.

He entertained the meeting for more than an hour, with strict and silent attention from his hearers.

He presented clearly to the most illiterate colored men, who seemed deeply impressed with the force and truth of his argument, the corruption of the Legislative, Judicial and Executive branches of the Government, and the incompetence of Republicans and Carpet Baggers after a fair trial and utter failure to financeer and legislate for the people of North Carolina.

He exposed their extravagance and frauds, and urged the inconsistency of appointing mean and thievish Carpet Baggers to fill positions of honor and trust over us, when they neither knew nor had the interest of the people and State at heart.

He called the attention of his hearers to the fact that our Legislature had appropriated $20,000,000 to build Rail Roads, and that the State had been swindled of the bonds by those in whose hands they were placed.

He called their attention to the purchase by the Legislature of 8 000 acres of land, at an expense to the State of $100,000, to build a Penitentiary on. These appropriations, just after having emerged from a gigantic and civil war, crushed her energies and exhausted her means.

But he did not stop here, he cited them to the destruction of their own work, in repudiating these bonds, just before an election to quiet the exasperated tax-payer, who is kept in ignorance of their midnight plottings, and for fear that the debt of State might be too plainly stamped upon them in the coming contest.

He showed plainly the enormous cost of the Officers and Clerks of the Counties and State, that it doubled what it used to be, and showed the laboring man to a figure, the amount of tax he paid upon the clothes and provisions he bought, and summed up to the great astonishment of many of his hearers the immense accumulation of debt by the different branches of the Government.

He warned them against the unconstitutional authority, delegated in the hands of one man, to suspend the writ of Habeas Corpus, arrest and throw into prison, without a hearing, any citizen of the State. He asked his hearers if they were willing for such a man as W. W. Holden to wield uncontrolled power over North Carolina. He pointed them to the abuse of his pardoning power in turning thieves and rascals loose upon society.

And in conclusion he adverted to the Educational department and asked the County Commissioners where were the public school funds, if any had been sent to them for the education of the children of the County, and pointed to the desecrated University of North Carolina, once crowded with students, and the nursery of learning and eloquence, now in the hands of miscreants and a stigma to the Republican party.

Hertford has offered the olive branch to her enemies, in endeavoring to waive the antipathy of parties, and cultivate a kind feeling between both races. They have peremptorily refused her concessions. Let every county of the State follow her example, and deliverance from Carpet Baggers and perjured friends is sure, and a signal victory will crown the efforts of the Conservatives of North Carolina. Hertford will send her Conservative Representative to the next General Assembly.

Mr. Jernigan closed his beautiful and appropriate speech, with loud applause from the people.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

PUBLIC MEETING.

ALBRIGHT'S TOWNSHIP, Alamance Co., N. C.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The delegates from the counties of Wilkes, Ashe and Alleghany, met in convention at Laurel Springs, on the 7th of May, for the purpose of selecting a Conservative candidate for the Senate in the next Legislature of North Carolina. A large number of delegates from all the counties composing the district were in attendance, and hosts of citizens who had assembled on the occasion.

The convention was organized by the election of the following officers: Abram Bryan, Esq., of Alleghany county, President; Dr. R. F. Hacket, Rev. Wm. M. Baldwin and James H. Parkes, Vice Presidents; William Weaver and F. W. Scott, Esq., secretaries.

After the convention was organized loud calls were made for a speech from Col. R. F. Armfield, of Wilkes, who came forward and responded in one of his best efforts.

Speeches were also delivered by Phineas Horton, Esq., of Wilkes, and Quincy E. Neal, Esq., of Ashe. The convention then proceeded to the selection of a candidate which resulted upon the second ballot, in the choice of Dr. C. L. Cook, of Wilkes county. The nomination of Dr. Cook was then made unanimous by a vote of the convention.

On motion, the President appointed Col. R. F. Armfield, Q. F. Neal, Esq., and Dr. J. L. Sinh, a committee to prepare and submit resolutions to the convention, who, subsequently, submitted the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we are unalterably opposed to the extravagance, speculation and dishonesty of the party now in power.

Resolved, That we invite all good and honest men of whatever former political associations, to unite with us to put a new set of men in power, who will vote for a reduction of expenditures and taxation, and a restoration of honesty, integrity and economy in the government.

Resolved, That we present the name of Dr. C. L. Cook to the voters of Ashe, Alleghany and Wilkes, as a man honest and true, and devoted to a thorough reform in the government, and we ask all the men of those counties who desire a change in public officers to vote for him as Senator for this district.

Resolved, That we commend our old public servants, and especially Phineas Horton, Esq., and regret that he and others are banned by the Howard amendment, from serving us in a political capacity.

On motion, the secretaries were directed to furnish a copy of these proceeding for publication to the Raleigh SENTINEL with a request that the Statesville American do copy.

PUBLIC MEETING.

On Saturday, the 28th inst., the Democrats and Conservatives of Oxford Township, assembled in the Court House.

On motion of Maj. Jas. T. Littlejohn, the meeting was organized by calling Dr. Wm. R. Hicks to the chair and appointing Wm. M. Sneed, Jr., Secretary.

Major Littlejohn explained the object of the meeting to be the appointment of delegates to represent this Township in the Democratic and Conservative Conventions to be held in Franklinton on the 7th and 8th of June next, to select a candidate or candidates to represent the 4th Congressional District in the 41st and 42nd Congresses; and in Oxford on the 25th day of June next, to represent Granville county in the next Legislature, and to fill the various county offices.

On motion, the chair appointed Col. J. S. Amis, Maj. J. T. Littlejohn, Col. T. Brown Venable, Dr. Z. M. Paschall and Anson Critcher, Esq., a Committee to suggest a course of procedure for the meeting. This Committee having retired for a few minutes, returned and recommended that the chair appoint ten delegates to the Franklinton and twenty to the Oxford Conventions.

On motion of Capt. Stephen A. Goodwin, this recommendation was unanimously approved; whereupon the chair appointed J. U. Cooper, Wm. M. Sneed, Jr., Esq., Col. T. Brown Venable, Maj. J. T. THE WEST POINT REVELS.

WEST POINT, May 25, 1870.

West Point and the entire National Academy were almost breathless with excitement yesterday. The son of a colored American citizen arrived here in his new role of military cadet. There had been rumors that negro boys had been appointed to the National Academy, but the absolute arrival of an African, commission in hand, is too much for West Point human nature to endure. Aristocratic professors and jaunty cadets are speechless. The time for the breaking forth of their indignation has not yet arrived. They cannot do the subject justice, but their indignant countenances and ominous looks indicate the coming storm.

Cadet Master Charles Howard (colored) comes from the State of Mississippi. His appointment is from the Secretary of War, and was recommended by the Hon. Legrand W. Pierce, newly elected member from the Fifth District.

Young Howard is a full black of sturdy physique. He measures five feet in height (regulation size,) and is as bright a boy as was ever seen. His hair is cut tight, and his accent smacks decidedly of the plantation.

"What you g'win to do wid dat bag, sah?" and "You dun let dat drap," was his exclamation to a hotel porter who accidentally took up his carpet bag. His nose is slightly retrousse, and his face is shiny with health. It is settled that he cannot be rejected physically by the Medical Board.

The first African cadet landed from the ferry-boat with a jaunty air, and, lifting his military hat, he inquired for the West Point Hotel. On arriving there he registered his name and asked for a room. For the first time at this hotel a cadet was refused a room. Charles said something about his rights, and sauntering out on the rampus, he inquired for Col. Jerry Black.—The news flew over to Col. Black's, who then and there, with Col. Boynton and others, held a very serious council of war. The African came and stood before them—before Col. Black of the Regular Army—and respectfully asked that his equality be recognized. The Colonel waved him away with his hand, and one by one the officers departed, speechless with amazement.

The white cadets seemed paralyzed. "It is dreadful," says one. "Let's put the nigger in the river," says another. Some of them threaten to resign, while others talk of killing the black boy outright. One young Democrat from Illinois exclaimed: "Great God, what shall we do? He will have to drill with us for four weeks before the examination, any way. He will have to be lulged."

One thing is certain, the black cadet is here. He is undoubtedly physically qualified. He must now drill with the white cadets until the examination on the 24th of July. Then he will fail in mental examination, and go back to Mississippi. This is the programme, for the examining officers have power to reject any applicant. Gen. Schriver and Col. Black are opposed to the African, and while they are at the head of the National Academy, the black boy will remain on the plantation. Judge Hoge, M. C., from Columbia, is to appoint a negro, and has already signed a paper of recommendation. Gen. Butler's colored youth was too young, and the General knew it.—He only appointed him for political purposes. But in the light of the Fifteenth Amendment, what shall we do with the African in our National and Naval Academies is a grave question for the unregenerate mind.—N. Y. Sun.

Localizing.—We don't know a more difficult undertaking than that of making, during quiet times, in a small city like Raleigh, a spicy and interesting Local column, especially when there is a continual down pouring of rain, which keeps every one housed except those who are obliged to be out, as has been the case a good part of to-day.

This morning, after going through the usual initiatory routine to the business of the day, and carefully reading and digesting the sparkling gems in the Local column of the morning's Standard, we sallied out, under a borrowed umbrella, in search of items; the following were all that presented themselves to our observant eye.

First, the opening of an office by the Carolina Life Insurance Company of Memphis, in the block of brick offices, corner of Fayetteville and Martin streets, and next to the office of the Brooklyn Life. We have been advertising the Carolina Life, of which it will be remembered, Hon. Jeff. Davis is President, for some weeks, and we are glad to hear that the Company, under the efficient agency of Gen. R. P. Hoke, is beginning to do a fair business of Insuring. Our townsman, A. M. Lewis, Esq., has become connected with the Company, as legal adviser and Assistant Agent, and may generally be found at the new office.

The next place we visited was the hardware store of Mr. J. Lewis, to inspect those patent broilers advertised in the Sentinel of yesterday, and we can recommend them to any and everybody fond of a nice, juicy broiled steak or chicken, or anything else broilable.

Next, we interviewed that new article, the "Cherry Seeder," advertised to day at the hardware store of Mr. T. H. Briggs; and truly it is an ingenious and simple little machine, sold at $2, and ought to be in any family where there are cherries. It just picks the seed out of the cherry as glibly as you please, without mashing the fruit or even squeezing the juice out of it.

On the street we met a gentleman from the country who spoke most despondingly in regard to the damage sustained by the crops in this county, from the heavy freshet. He is a very intelligent and observant man, and he gave it as his opinion that the loss sustained by the farmers on the Neuse and other large streams in the county, including the loss of bridges, &c., will not fall very far short of half a million of dollars.

In our perambulation we passed the splendid new Livery and Sales stables of Wynn & Co., adjoining which our enterprising fellow citizen N. S. Harp is having erected a large brick Carriage and Buggy Factory, but as only the walls of the first story have been begun, we shall say no more about it now, reserving it for a local on some future day, when we get hard run again.

One more paragraph must close the catalogue for to day, and that will be to notice the new family residence now being erected for Col. Heck, in the beautiful oak grove, nearly opposite the Rayner place.—Other improvements in East Ward will be chronicled the next time we make a round in that direction.

For the Sentinel.

Inscribed to the memory of Robt B. Howell, son of Rev. Jesse Howell, who died July the 13, 1869.

He is gone, yes gone forever,
Whence, we know he'll not return,
'Tis hard the tender cords to sever,
Which bound him to loved ones at home.

Could love have stayed the hand of death,
His youthful form would now be her;
But friends who loved him now are left
To mourn for him who was so dear.

When on his dying couch he lay,
He'd fold his mother to his breast,
And kiss the tears that flowed away,
And speak of his approaching death.

He'd no desire to live, he said;
But wished his youthful comrades by
To stand around his dying bed,
And in his youth to see him die.

Mother, your boy did not fear death,
Why should you fill your heart with grief,
And, brother, though alone you're left,
Think of his words and find relief.

Sisters, we all could not be there,
Around our brother's dying bed
But to his grave we'll oft repair,
And there our tears together shed.

Father, mother, sisters, brother,
In Heaven, if God wills so to be,
With Bennie m-y we all together,
Praise God throughout eternity.—A Sister.

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA.

Mr. Editor:—You probably know, what your readers are not apprized of, that in 1867, upon the resignation of Major J. W. Wilson as Chief Engineer of this Road, the Directors, (then all Conservatives,) elected Col. W. E. Ellason in his stead.

It was understood, at that time, that Col. E. was a decided Conservative; but, after the Western Division of the Road was cut off and the Stockholders were made to all intents and purposes, a distinct corporation under the control of Swepson and Littlefield, Col. E. was re-elected by the Radical Directors, appointed by the Governor for the "Eastern Division." Whether he sacrificed his political opinions, in order to obtain the office, or whether he has any settled or deeply-rooted convictions, as to politics, this writer does not know, but it is certain that under the rule, inaugurated by Smith and Gov. Holden, no other Conservative or Democrat was permitted to retain any office of importance without a promise of political repentance and reform. And it is certainly true that Col. E. acted in concert with the Radicals in the last meeting of our Stockholders at Newton, when Vance and Merrimon were defeated for Directors.

The President, Dr. Mott, and the Superintendent, Col. Tate, the former a Republican and the latter a Democrat, have, I believe, labored assiduously to raise means to prosecute the work. Since our State bonds depreciated they have been endeavoring, with prospects of success, to raise funds on mortgage bonds, issued by the Directors under the provisions of the charter. Col. Tate also superintends the running of trains and discharges all the duties incident to his office.

Therefore, it will be readily understood, that the Chief Engineer has nothing to do with that portion of the road, already finished. What then are his duties? Simply to superintend the construction, and to lend all of his influence, and exert himself to the utmost to complete the work speedily.

The foregoing is merely explanatory of what will follow. Has Col. E. discharged his duties unselfishly and faithfully? Has he earned the salary (which I believe, is three thousand dollars) given him by the company? I would not intentionally do injustice; but he certainly ought to explain some things, that are now exciting suspicion against him, and in the absence of such explanation the Directors should call for an investigation of his conduct. Hon. T. R. Caldwell is one of the twelve Directors and claims perhaps justly some credit for his efforts, in the appointment of the Bragg committee, to ferrit out any fraud or misconduct on the part of railroad officials. The writer has entire confidence in Mr. Caldwell's personal integrity, and he hopes therefore, that he will have the nerve to call the attention of the Board of Directors, at their next meeting to the following facts in relation to the Chief Engineer.

First, it is certain, that the grading is nearly completed to a point about ninety miles from Col. E's place of residence (Statesville,) and it is said, that he makes only semi-occasional visits to the mountain section where a number of contractors are engaged in leveling the mountain sides and boring through the Blue Ridge, his excuse being, that he is engaged in his remote office. What he does there beyond supervising the estimates of resident Engineers, which should not occupy much of his time, especially as these gentlemen from constant attention to the work, know more of it probably, than he does himself, no one can imagine. In one of these "Angelic visits," to the mountains, recently made, he reported to the contractors and in some way it was communicated to the managers and laborers on the mountain section that Dr. Mott and Col. Tate could not furnish means to the contractors and the work would probably be suspended.

Secondly it is certain, that Col. Eliason is a partner in a very large contract on the road, of which Gen. Forrest is President, leading, I believe, from Memphis to Selma, Ala.

Thirdly it is equally true that a short time after the aforesaid visit, a number of managers with about two hundred hands left our road with some agents of Col. E's company, destined for his work in Alabama.

Now, I do not charge that Col. E. designedly recruited hands for his own private contract to the detriment of our Road, for the presumption is, that any official receiving three thousand dollars to see to the vigorous prosecution of this work, would not prove recreant to his trust. But take the facts together, that a high official circulated such a report, that his agents followed and enticed the employees away, and this enured to his own personal benefit, while it certainly injured the corporation, of which he was the paid servant, and, I think, it is proper that he should be required to give an account of his stewardship.

There are some other rumors in relation to the official conduct of Col. E., and supported by a sufficient show of evidence to require examination. If he should choose to ask the Directors for a thorough investigation, not a mere white washing Committee, he can have an opportunity to exculpate himself, and I hope he may be able to do so. A Stockholder.

On Friday last in the Cumberland Superior Court, the jury after an absence of twenty minutes, rendered a verdict of guilty against Jacob Manuel, colored, charged with murdering another colored man named Mayner, on the 1st of April last.

Notice—Beneficial to all Whom it may Concern.—Persons indebted to the undersigned, will come forward and settle within 30 days from date, if not their names, amounts (and what for!) will be published for 30 days. Phil. Thiem.

OBITUARY.

Announcement has already been made of the recent death, at the residence of his son-in-law, Henry F. Spaulding, Esq., Parkside, Riverdale, N. Y., of that Christian gentleman, Dr Joab Beckwith. The intelligence has brought profound sadness and regret to many in this community, who knew and loved the dead, and who fee keenly for the living in their bereavement. The writer asks a few lines in the Sentinel, to pay a feeble tribute to the eminent worth of the good man gone.

Dr. Beckwith was born in Poughkeepsie, New York, and was the son of Captain John Beckwith, of the Revolutionary Army. He graduated in the School of Medicine at the early age of 21 or 22 years, and came South to reside. He married Margaret, sister of the distinguished John Stanly, of Newbern,—a lady of most estimable character and shining virtues, who died a few years since,—and subsequently settled at Salisbury, in this State. Thence, after a short residence, he removed to Raleigh, where he lived for more than thirty years, adorning the walks of social and domestic life, and illustrating his Profession by a skilful and successful practice. About the year 1845, he removed to Petersburg, Virginia, where his eldest son, Dr. T. Stanly Beckwith, resided,—living there until 1865, when, at the close of the war he transferred his residence to the beautiful home of his son-in-law, on the Hudson, where, at the ripe old age of 86 years, he breathed his last, in the full possession of all his faculties, surrounded by sorrowing daughters and sympathizing friends, in the blessed hope of a blissful hereafter, and crowned with the halo of a well-spent life.

Those, in this community, who remember Dr Beckwith, as he was when he dwelt among us, will recall, with pleasure, his affable and agreeable manners, his scrupulously fastidious dress, his intelligent, cheerful and benignant countenance, and his gentle and skilful offices in the sick chamber or by the couch of suffering. The writer remembers him, as one of those courtly gentlemen of the "Old School," of whom so few survive, and of whom the last must, unfortunately, soon disappear, leaving behind the fragrant memory of a class of men, who were proud, without being arrogant,—dignified, without being over austere,—genial and blithe, indeed, without being frivolous,—pious, without being puritanical,—tolerant always, kind to all, just and liberal,—without fear and without reproach!

Dr. Beckwith, when among us, enjoyed the high regard of such men as George E. Badger, Thomas P. Devereux, Weston R. Gales, and others of our leading citizen, and the friendship, particularly, which existed between him and the three above named, was of the most endearing and tender character.

As a most lifelong communicant of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and an earnest lover of her Liturgy, his declining days were blessed by the spectacle of his youngest son worthily wearing the Episcopal robes of the Church of his faith, and presiding, with marked efficiency, over one of the largest and most flourishing Dioceses in the South.

His end was calm and full of serenity and peace. He grew, at times, in his last illness, ecstatic, at the idea of re-union, in the Heavenly country, with the loved ones gone before; and, finally, he went through the dark portals victorious and triumphing!

This celebrated watering place, formerly called North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Wednesday, the 1st day of June.

Being situated in the Northwestern part of the State, in a section remarkable for its delightful climate, beauty and healthiness, these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable Watering Places to be found.

From the numerous wonderful cures that have come immediately under my own observation within the last four years (by the use of these waters) I am satisfied that this is the place for all whose condition can be improved by the salubrious character of any water that flows from the earth, and the medicinal qualities of the same are not excelled.

Our rooms, in both cottages and other buildings, are large and pleasant; cottages containing from two to six rooms each, suitable for large or small families. Many rooms having been already applied for arrangements will be made to accommodate a large number of visitors, and it is to be hoped that our Southern people will patronize the Sparkling Catawba, which ought to be the pride of Norths Carolina, as well as t o South, for no watering place can offer greater inducements for either health or pleasure.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, May 31.—House.—The bill to revive the navigation and commercial interests of the United States was taken up and the previous question ordered. The various amendments were voted on, and the House refused to order the bill to be engrossed for a third reading, yeas 60, nays 109. Finally the bill was recommitted to a select Committee.

The bill to reduce internal taxes was taken up and considered up to the sixteenth section, without adopting any important amendments.

It needs only to be known to be prized.

Thirty Years is certainly a long enough time to prove the efficacy of any medicine, and that the Pain Killer is deserving of all its proprietors claim for it, is amply proved by the unparalleled popularity it has attained. It is a sure and effective remedy. Sold by all Druggists.

PURELY MUTUAL. DIVIDENDS PAYABLE AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" after THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurances may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

A New Discovery!!
Phalon's
"VITALIA;"
or,
Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

Phalon's "Vitalia" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

Phalon's Vitalia

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

The Vitalia is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

PLINY FREEMAN,	President.
LORING ANDREWS,	Vice President.
J. A. HADENBURGH,	2d Vice President
H. C. FREEMAN,	Secretary.

Managed by able men, thoroughly experienced in the business of Life Insurance; its business since its organization has exceeded that of any other Company for the corresponding period of its existence.

H. H. GOODLOE,	General Agent for N. C.
DR. E. BURKE HAYWOOD,	Examining Physician.
Gen'l. S. B. BUCKNER,	Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."

MISCELLANEOUS.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should secure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFF enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.
